

Attention Fans of the Amulet of Yendor Series!

The release of Amulet of Yendor 3: The Final Battle has been postponed until Tuesday, November 23rd! This is so we can bring you the highest quality game possible, and so that we can have time to prepare for the sweet contest! Whoever can finish the game first will receive a spectacular prize, with an estimated value of an AWFUL LOT! And also a phony Amulet of Yendor! The first three runners-up will receive phony Amulets of Yendor as well. The rules of the contest are as follows:

1. As soon as I enter the back doors of Dondero a little before 7 AM on November 23rd, 2004, I will be available to send the game program to you. Have your RAM fairly empty, as this is a big one!
2. The contest ends when someone approaches me with the password obtained by finishing the game. In the event that two people should say it at the same time, there will be a knife fight to the death to determine the winner.
3. You may play in groups, but I don't wanna deal with you fighting over who gets to keep the prize. I will make a suggestion, though: have a knife fight! Also, if a group wins, each member will receive a phony Amulet.
4. Don't be a jerk. If people want you to send them the game, do it! Also, it'd be nice to let them play it on your calculator if they don't have one.
5. In case the contest goes longer than the school day (hopefully it won't!) you can call me with the password at (248) 435-7670, or instant message it to me at DenNorskeGutten (AIM). Or, if you want to do it the slightly slower way, you can e-mail it to me at DenNorskeGutten@gmail.com.
6. Beta testers are not eligible – that means you, Paul.

So that everyone has a fair chance and can find me during the day, here's my schedule for Tuesday, November 23rd:

Before school at 7:00: Orchestra room, in the connector between the 1st and 2nd floors

1st hour: Band, Mr. Foreman, Room 056

2nd hour: Pre-Calculus, Mr. Wilhelm, room 317

3rd-4th hour: ITA, Mr. Kohring, room 319-ish
